

Jobs included in this sector:

- Games Designer
- Architect
- Journalist
- Post production editor
- Graphic Designer
- Sound engineer
- IT support technician

What's it all about?

Creative and digital is a rapidly expanding sector. Bristol and Bath are among the hotspots in the UK for Creative and Digital jobs. Bristol has been recognised as part of the Creative Triangle, alongside London and Manchester. It is estimated that jobs in this sector will increase by 21% by 2020. Bristol's strengths include films, music, games design and performing arts.

How do I get in?

College courses include

- Level 2 Certificate in Web Design
- Level 2 Certificate in Creative Fashion Design
- Level 2 Certificate in Art & Design
- Level 3 Extended Diploma in Computer Animation for Games & Film
- Level 3 Extended Diploma in Graphics & Illustration
- Level 3 Extended Diploma in Performing or Production Arts
- Level 3 Extended Diploma in IT

Thinking of an Apprenticeship?

- Fashion & Textiles Advanced level
- Design Intermediate & Advanced
- Live Events & Promotion Intermediate & Advanced level
- Creative & Digital Media Intermediate & Advance level

What can I expect to earn?

Depending on your qualifications and the position, it can be between £20k-£40k per year.

To find out more information about different jobs in this industry have a look at

<https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk>

Where might I get a job?

Aardman Animations

BBC

Films @59

Wildfire Publishing

Tigress Productions

Future Publishing

Osborne Pike

